LIFE LONG LEARNERS PROGRAMS:

Discover the history of the Museum and its collections with these adult program offerings. Adults of all ages are invited.

Williams' Family Cemetery Tour

Join Richard Siembab, Museum docent and longtime member of the Association of Gravestone Studies, for an interpretive tour of this historic cemetery in Roger Williams Park. Betsey Williams, a direct descendant of our state's founder, Roger Williams, gave her farmstead to Providence in 1871. Her land became the nucleus of Roger Williams Park. Visit Betsey's grave and many others in this popular program.

Sat., Oct. 26, 2013, 1:00pm-2:30pm.

Glass Lantern Slides: The Projected Image

This enlightening new program will focus on the importance of glass lantern slides in educational settings. Claire Kelly, Museum docent will guide us through the photographic process used to create these images and will present a lantern slide show from the Museum's historic image collection.

Sat., Nov. 9, 2013, 1:00pm and 2:00pm

Program Fee per Session:

$3.00 per person/Museum Members are free. Includes Museum admission. Does not include planetarium admission. Pre-registration preferred.
