The Providence Police Department has sanctioned an official commemorative badge and pin to mark the celebration of the Department's 150th Anniversary.

The badge, which is a replica of the original badge issued to the Department's first sworn officers in 1864, is available at Leader Uniforms at a cost of $67.00 each. All sworn on-duty officers who elect to wear the commemorative badge in lieu of wearing their Department-issued badge may do so, in accordance with all directives governing the wearing of the Department badge, for the remainder of the 2014 calendar year.

The commemorative pin may also be worn by all sworn on-duty officers for the remainder of the 2014 calendar year. Officers who elect to wear the pin will display it above their FID numbers when in uniform. Plainclothes officers who elect to wear the pin will display it on the left lapel of their suit/sport jacket.
